THERE AREN'T MANY MEN WHO get any more out of life than a good home, and there are lots of men who don't even get that, because they have to worry about the landlord. We offer an opportunity to every man to enjoy his own home wille he's paying for it, and our proposition practically amounts to a man paying rent to himself. In other words, we will lean you the money immediately to build the kind of a home you wish and agree to recept the payment of the loan in amounts no greater than the rent you are paying at present. It would be a little paying at present. It would be a l difficult for the average man to figure an easier proposition. It is not long der such conditions, until you own cwn home and have something to the money expended. Open Monday
